CENTENARY COLLEGE OF LOUISIANA

Established 1825

SHREVEPORT

Office of the President

To the Students of Centenary College:

I salute you to whom this issue of The Yoncopin is dedicated. The sincerity of this salute springs from a recognition of the tremendous responsibilities that descend upon you as you enter a world of rapid transition and even revolution. No group in the history of the world has been called on to make such rapid intellectual and emotional adjustments in so short a time.

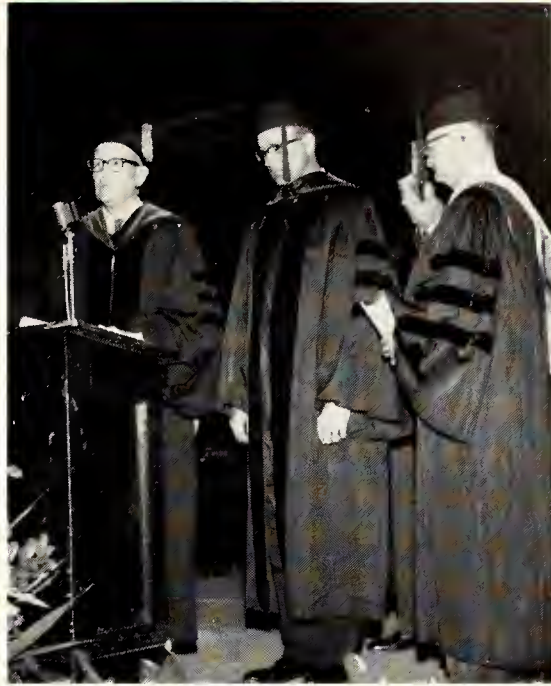

The Centenary College catalogue declares that "It is the purpose of the college to prepare its students for maximum usefulness and service to society, based upon Christian principles and ethics." The accomplishment of this declared purpose has never been more difficult. Each year we send our graduates out wondering how well the college has been able to realize this purpose. The ancient Greeks have stated that "The aim of mankind should be to tame the savageness of man and make gentle the life of the world." The intervening years have in no way altered this aim, but the rapidity with which modern science is forcing upon us radical adjustments makes the task facing your generation one that cannot be sidestepped. Thus my salute to you is based upon a respect for the difficulties which you must face.

Today we often speak of the preservation of freedom as one of our major responsibilities, which indeed it is; but there is one freedom which the graduates of Centenary College should never enjoy, and that is freedom from responsibility. As we think on our responsibility for the preservation of freedom in the years ahead it might be well for us to remember the words of Plato that "Freedom is no matter of laws and constitutions; only he has freedom who realizes the divine order within himself, the true standard by which a man can steer and measure himself." This carries us right back to Centenary's published purpose of "maximum usefulness and service to society, based upon Christian principles and ethics." You, as students and future graduates, will be the measure of our success.

The Student Senate of Centenary College has the power to govern and regulate all student functions as defined in the Senate Rules and as subject to the general college regulations and actions by the Committee of Student Affairs. Thirteen members and three faculty advisors compose the Student Senate, and the five major Senate officers are elected by the entire student body. A boy and girl are elected to represent the independent students, and the sororities and fraternities elect representatives through Panhellenic and Interfraternity organizations respectively. The presidents of each class become members of the Senate immediately after their election.

In addition to its governing responsibilities, the Student Senate sponsors an annual "Howdy Dance," Homecoming, Student Fair, and Founders Day.

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN COLLEGES

JIMMY WILLIAMS, BARBARA BARBEE, and BOB ROSS

Recognition by WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES is an honor not easily obtained. It means that the student has been officially recommended by the college or university he attends and also that he has been accepted by the organization. College juniors, seniors, and graduate students are eligible for nomination. Selection of nominees is conducted by campus committees and usually involves student-faculty-administrative participation. These committees consider the student's scholarship, leadership, citizenship, and promise of future usefulness.

MAROON JACKETS

Synonymous with dedication to Centenary College is the organization of Maroon Jackets, composed of girls who are outstanding in leadership, scholarship, and character. Serving as official college hostesses, these girls represent Centenary at all college functions. They assist during registration, Freshman week, lyceum programs, and weekly chapel programs. Membership in the Maroon Jackets requires a 3.0 average and two semesters of residence at Centenary previous to the semester in which new members are chosen.

CENTENARY HONOR COURT

The Honor Court is a judicial board of five members and two alternate members all of whom hold office from the time of their election to the date of their graduation, unless elected to a Student Senate office. Members of the Honor Court are nominated by the students, the field is narrowed by the faculty, and the final selection is made by the retiring court.

The function of the Honor Court is to try persons accused of violating Centenary's honor code. All trials are held in secret and no person is convicted unless proven guilty by unquestionable evidence. The faculty sponsor this year is Dr. Carlton.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

Alpha Psi Omega, national honor fraternity for dramatics, was installed on Centenary Campus in 1961 and serves as an incentive for theatrical work and as a reward for excellence and perseverance in Jongleurs. Pledging and initiation are based upon points earned for working in all phases of playhouse production. Miss Ruth Alexander and Mr. Orlin Corey are faculty sponsors of the Centenary Delta Iota chapter.

STANDING: Mr. Graber, Ruth Cozine, Don Farley, Patt Byrd, Paulette James. SITTING: Sharon Hubert, Ruth Aiken, Sylvia Caldwell, Colleen Piercy, Rebecca Hampton, Grace Jackson, Dorothy Bradley, Barbara McMillan, Bonnie Henry, Katy O'Mary. STANDING IN BACK: Marshall Oglesby, Bob Harmon, Randy Tallman, Hal Proske, Barry Hope.

DELTA TAU OMICRON

Delta Tau Omicron, national honorary business and economic fraternity, requires for membership an average of 3.5 in all business and economics courses and an overall average of 2.5. The purpose of the fraternity is to promote scholastic achievement and to develop the leadership and character of its members. Business sessions are held during the year in an attempt to stimulate interest in the business professions. The advisors of the organization are the members of the commerce faculty.

SEATED: Madilene Howard, Karen Kanapky, Jerrie Rainwater. STANDING: David Ray, Jim Mitchell, Allen Ford, Mrs. Menefee.

PHI BETA

Phi Beta, national drama, speech, and music honor fraternity, holds a semi-annual rush party which invited students attend. An audition is made before a selection board. If these students meet with the approval of the group in their musical or dramatic abilities, they are invited to pledge the fraternity.

AMERICAN GUILD OF ORGANISTS

An interest in music and the ability to play the organ are the chief requirements for membership in Centenary's Organ Club. Various aspects of organ music are discussed and studied at the meetings. This helps to achieve the purpose of the organization which is to foster an interest in organ music and to provide opportunities for the enjoyment of it.

KAPPA CHI

Kappa Chi is a non-denominational organization composed of those students who are interested in full time religious vocations.

SIGMA TAU DELTA

Sigma Tau Delta is a national writing fraternity. As a requisite for membership, a student must read before the group an original manuscript. The fraternity meets twice a month at which time each member presents a piece of his own creative writing. The faculty sponsor is Dr. E. M. Clark.

FRONT ROW: Rosemary Casey, Ann Gibbs, Tommy Head, Dessa Crawford, Jimmy Henderson, Katy Staples. SECOND ROW: Dr. Clark, Herb Fackler, Terese Shetley, Melanie Martin, Bob Tolbert, Dianna Laney, Jerry O'Dell. The Student Louisiana Teacher's Association is open to all students who are majoring in education. The organization holds regular meetings at which are featured outstanding educators as speakers. Topics for discussion at meetings usually center around problems met by prospective teachers. Each year a cash award is given to an outstanding senior education major. An annual spring banquet highlights the year's activities. Dr. A. J. Middlebrooks is sponsor.

MATH CLUB

The Centenary Math Club works primarily to promote the student's interests in the various phases of mathematics and to acquaint them with the vocational opportunities in the field. Speakers prominent in the field of mathematics are often featured at the monthly meeting of the club. Sponsors of this new but fast growing organization are Mrs. R. K. Spears and Mr. Danvers.

PHYSICS CLUB

The Physics Club at Centenary College was organized to further interests in the field of physics and to acquaint members with the vast opportunities in the field. This purpose is achieved by the members by means of guest lecturers and group discussions. The club meets on the fourth Tuesday of each month under the sponsorship of Dr. L. G. Raub.

SEATED: David Ewing; Judy Martin, Vice President; Carolyn Searcy, Secretary-Treasurer; Nancy Minter, President; Otto Sellers. STANDING: Mr. Goff, David Soucier, Ted Mundelhaus, George Kalmbach, Bob White, Emmet Kline, Dr. Raub.

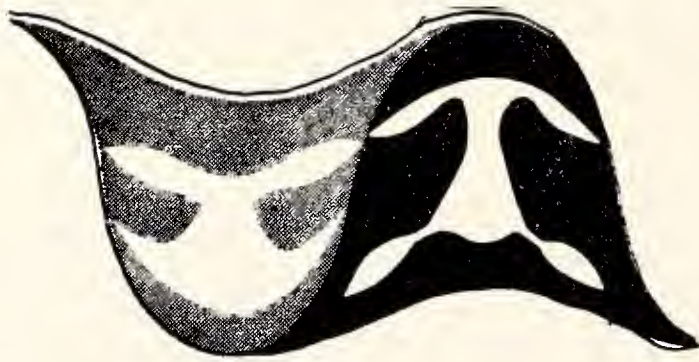

Presenting ...

THE 1962/63 PLAYBILL OF THE JONGLEURS

Mr. Graber and Mr. and Mrs. Corey talk over costumes and plans for one of their productions.

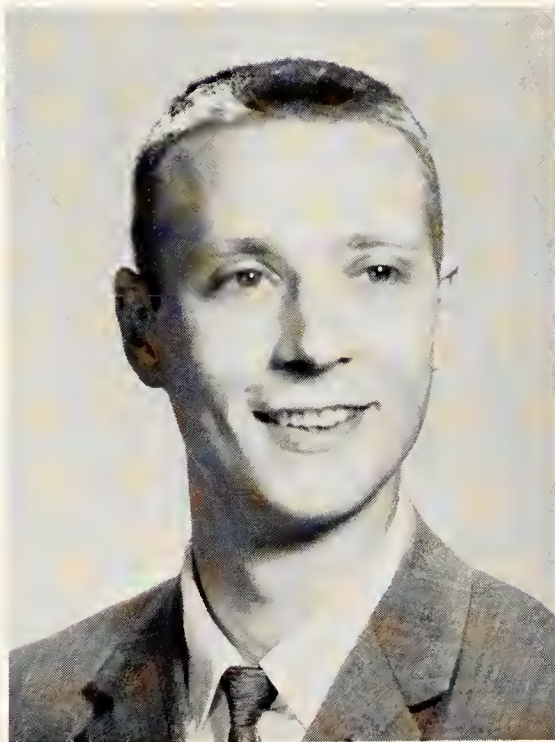

Symbol of The Jongleurs of Centenary is a stock character of the 15th century, Cucurucu. He struts on the cover of the playbill of the Jongleurs.

The Jongleurs create delight and entertainment wherever they go. The production of JOB is proof of this statement.

Orlin Corey, head of the Marjorie Lyons Playhouse.

Joe B. Graber, speech and drama instructor.

Mrs. Corey works on costumes for coming plays.

Mr. Corey and Miss Ruth Alexander take a break from their busy schedule.

A major theatrical event of the summer of 1962 in Shreveport was the August premier of the musical, The Peace Gimmick. The book was written by Robert Canzoneri, and given a musical interpretation by Charles Knox. Featured in the play were college, community, and regional talents. Several members of the Centenary faculty, in addition to the speech and drama instructors, participated in the production. With a cast larger than that of most plays, The Peace Gimmick afforded many of the citizens of Shreveport an opportunity to participate both on and back stage of a dramatic production.

Geographically, the creation of The Peace Gimmick involves several sections of the United States. The original concept of the book came in Kentucky, one song was written between Louisiana and Indiana, most of the other songs were written in Mississippi, the book itself was written in California, and the premier of the play was held in Louisiana.

Buddy Flowers, a Shreveport businessman, played the role of Richard Cordelon.

A smile and thoughts of a "big deal" play across the face of bookie Jack Mulkey.

Nancy Humphrey played a double role, as a waitress, as pictured below, and as a lady reporter.

SUMMER, 1962

at the
MARJORIE LYONS PLAYHOUSE

Job remains faithful to his God, despite ominous warnings and admonitions from his friends.

Intricately made-up, the players resemble the prismatic characters of a cathedral window.

Job and the chorus seek to solve age-old questions: Where is God? What is man? Why must man suffer?

"... the eternal search for meaning in life remains man's greatest adventure." This statement by Orlin Corey could well be called the theme of his play, The Book of Job. In his search for a justification of the suffering with which God has afflicted him, Job finds a faith which is unshakeable by either physical agony or the desertion of friends. The actors, author, and stage crew of Job left house capacity audiences at Marjorie Lyons Playhouse in October for a two and one-half month tour of Eastern colleges and civic centers. Then, after a brief return to Shreveport, the group played, sans newspaper publicity, to audiences in Christ Church, Park Avenue, New York City. This summer the play will return for its fifth consecutive season in the outdoor theater in Pine Mountain State Park, Kentucky.

THE MARJORIE LYONS PLAYHOUSE

Dirty Work At The Crossroads, a classic melodrama of the gay '90's by Bill Johnson, contained all the time-tested elements of a dramatic success—virtue in distress, valiant heroes, evil almost triumphant, and a plot that thrills and chills. The Jongleurs combined humor and farce with satire and irony in their first attempt at this form of American theatrical art. Included on the playbill with the drama were a soft shoe dance, Parisian can-can dancers, and "sing-along" music.

Villain Munro Murgatroyd, played by Don Farley, attempts to silence Ida Rhinegold, the woman who knows the secrets of his colorful past.

Mrs. Asterbilt and her daughter Leonie critically survey their new and humble surroundings.

Fleurette, French maid played by Dianna Ammons, shows rustic Mookie Maguggins some of her "city ways."

Whistles from the audience were combined with the dancers' squeals as the can-can line performed.

Father Daly, played by Bob Bishoff, tries to save Dyke's life as well as his soul.

In spite of his blindness, Victor "sees" beauty in nature.

Becky Hampton and Gene Woods discuss the prisoner.

THE VALIANT

"The valiant never taste of death but once."

THE SPACE BETWEEN

Potpourri-'63 featured three exciting theatrical events in one evening's entertainment. The Valiant was a one act psychological mystery written by Holworthy Hall and Robert Middlemas, and directed and designed by senior drama major Grace Jackson. Anthology—A Change of Pace featured members of the speech and drama faculty, Miss Rena Calhoun, Miss Ruth Alexander, and Mr. Joe V. Graber reading a few of their favorite humorous selections from the works of modern authors. The world premiere production of "The Space Between" presented an excellent tragicomic fantasy written and directed by Joe Graber.

The costume for Titania as played by Virginia Bobbit.

MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

Drawing of the costume for Oberon as played by Allen Shaffer.

Costumes for the moth, fairy, and cobweb will be portrayed by Ruthanne Cozine, Becky Hampton, and Katy O'Mary respectively.

Shakespeare's comic masterpiece, "Midsummer Night's Dream," will be presented by the Jongleurs March 14-23.

This Shakespeare play promises to be the most elaborate production yet seen at the Marjorie Lyons Playhouse.

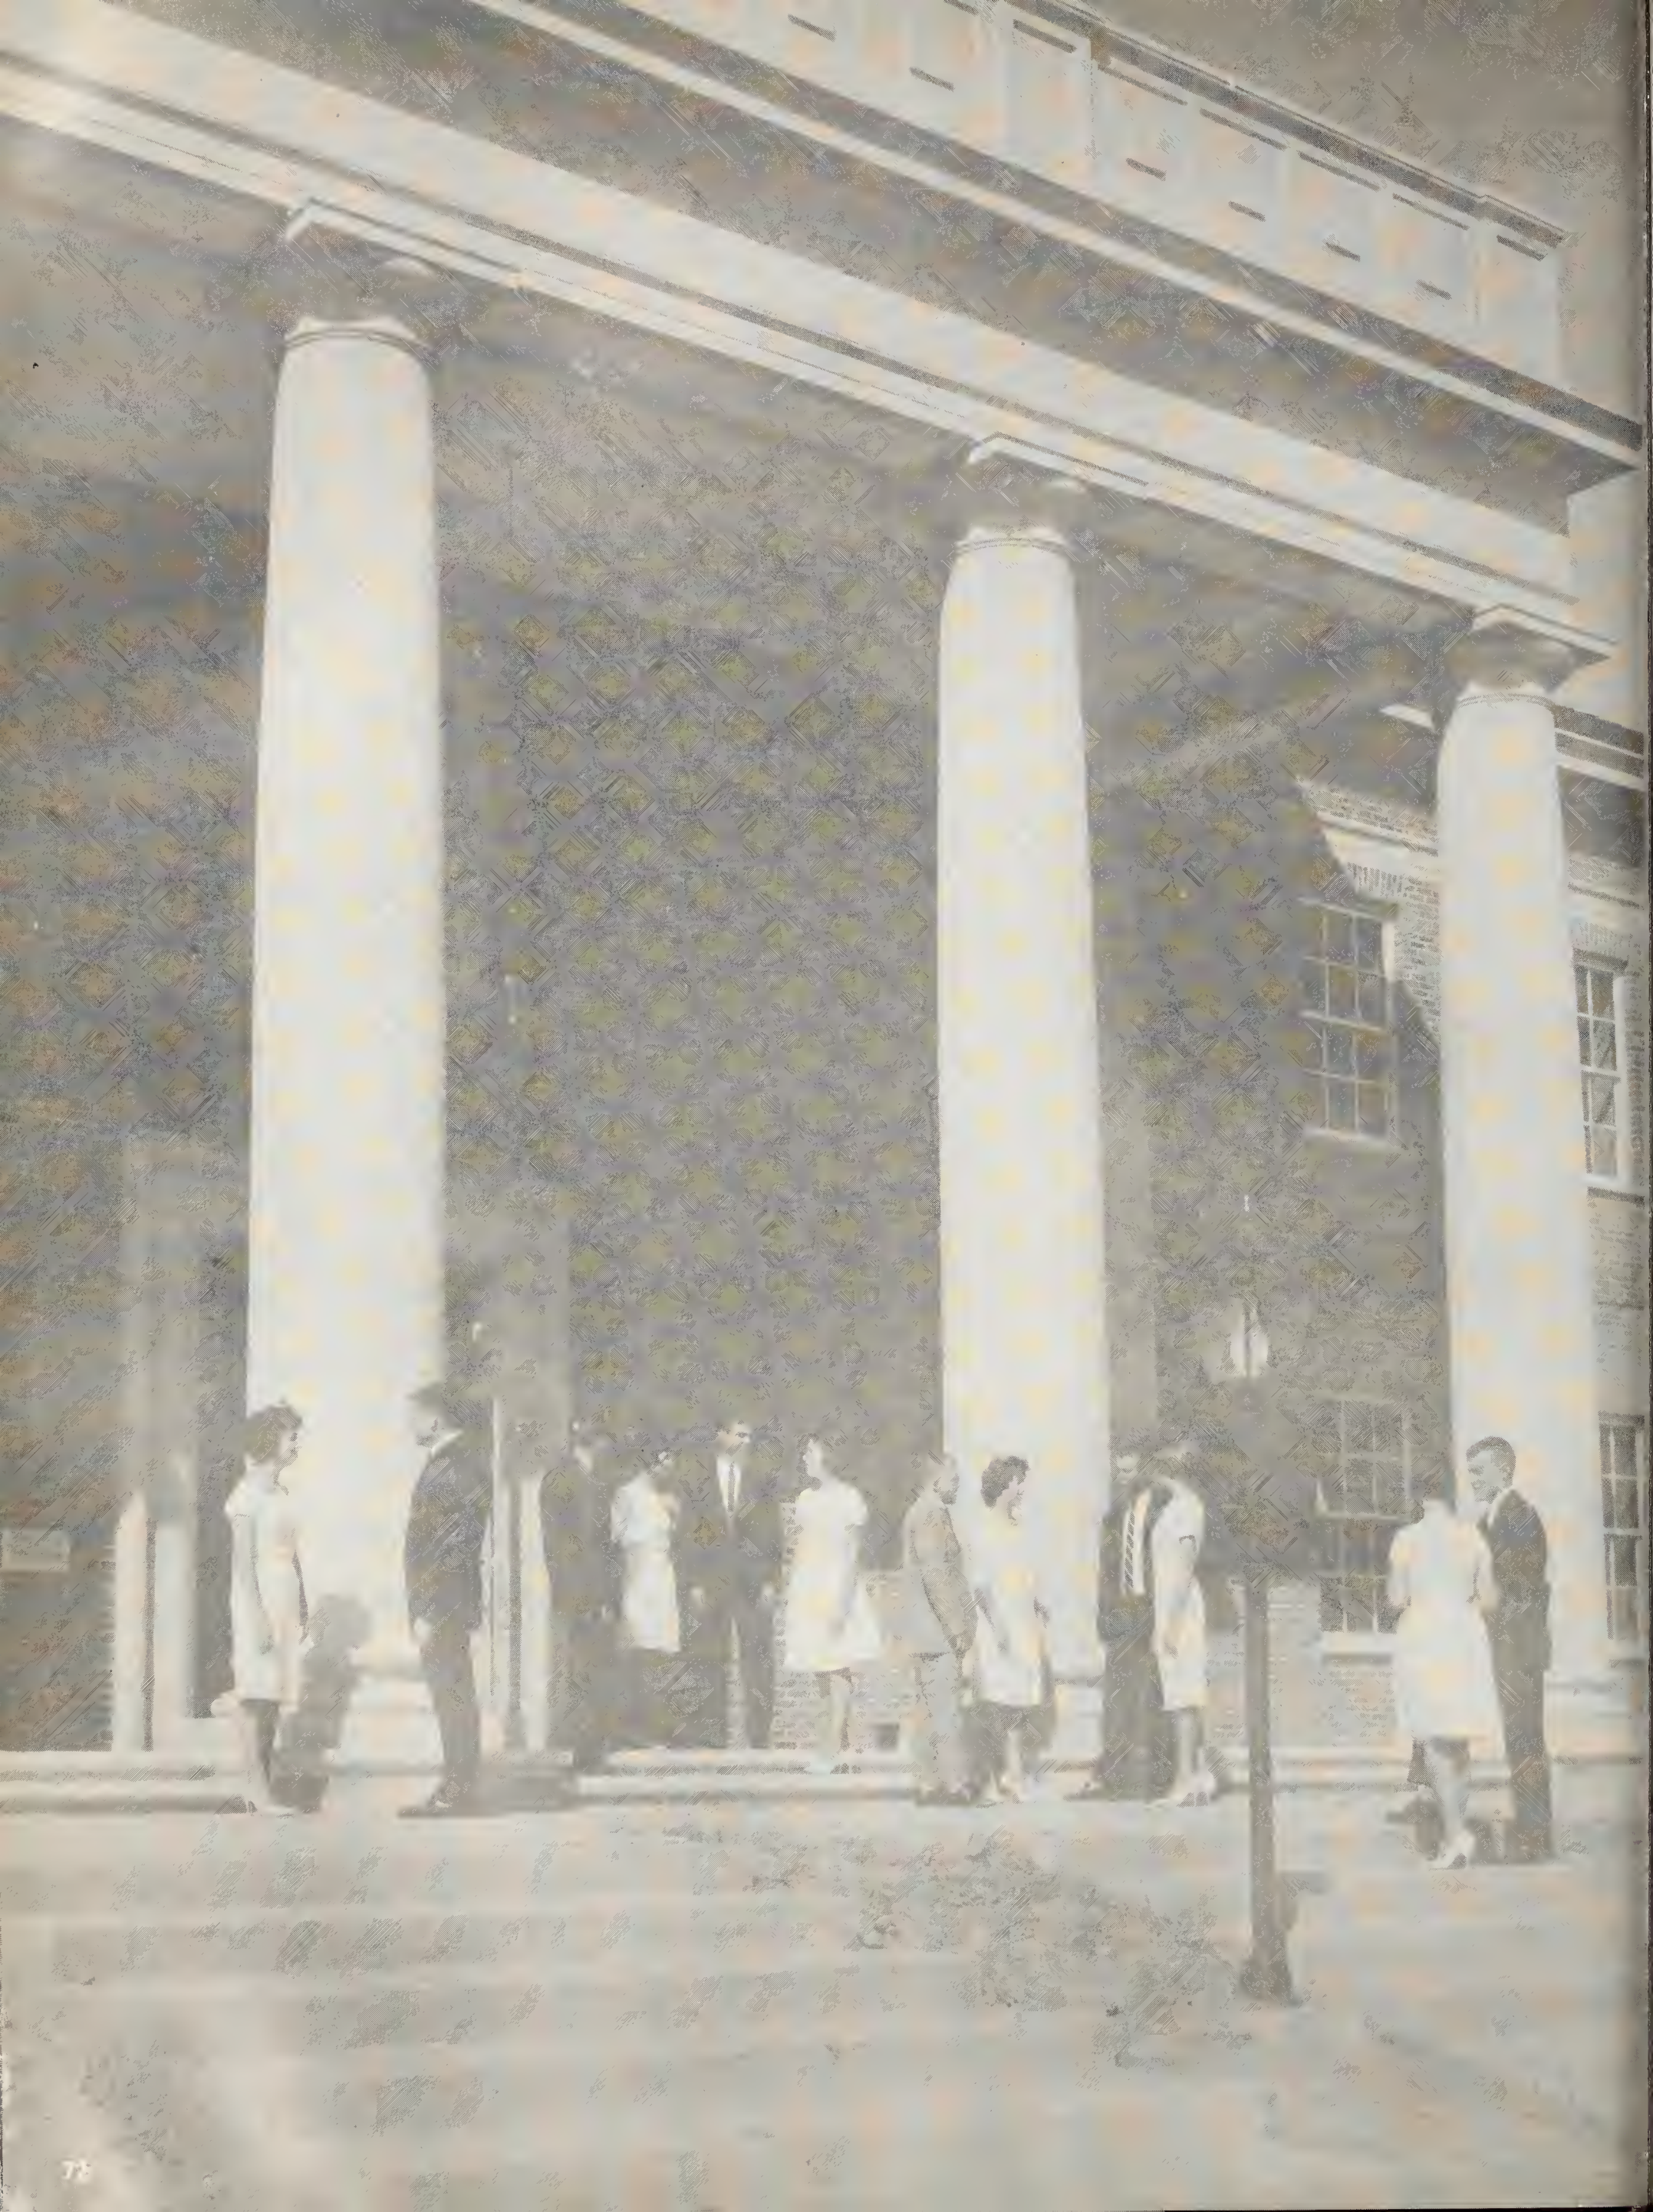

Audiences seeing this production will see the actual growing of grass.

Costume for Snug the Joiner played by Bob Harmon.

Costume for Hermia played by Ginger Darnell.
